

Gerri Shaftel Constant

Gerri Shaftel Constant is Medical & Special Projects Producer for CBS-2 News Los Angeles where she covers Medicine, Education, and sometimes, The Arts. Over more than 20 years working in Television News, Gerri has been awarded 16 Los Angeles Area Emmy Awards and several other honors for her reporting. In a nutshell, she is a pursuer of excellence who enjoys telling stories about people and discoveries.

Gerri is an Alum of the Annenberg Health Journalism Fellowship at USC, and holds a BA in Journalism, Magna Cum Laude, from California State University, Northridge. Gerri currently serves on the Board of the Los Angeles Press Club, is a former Governor of the Television Academy and a current member of the Association of Health Care Journalists