

Nicole White

Nicole White is a practicing Registered Dental Hygienist in California. She graduated from California State University Long Beach with a B.S. in Kinesiology. While working as a dental assistant during her undergraduate program, she found her true passion to be a hygienist. Nicole graduated with honors from Taft College with an A.S. in Dental Hygiene.

During her time as a clinician, she has worked with community outreach programs like CDA Cares and giving oral health presentations to local elementary schools. She is currently working in private practice and serves on the California Dental Hygiene Association Public Health Council.

In her spare time, Nicole likes to run at the beach or travel to new places with her family and friends.
